

The Sendagaya and Kitasando area offers plenty of options for a nice walk, without the crowds of Harajuku. Starting with the fashionable Cat Street that offers a relaxing shopping experience, followed by a break at a historical shrine constructed in 1940 to pray and admire a pond filled with colorful koi before continuing along the stroll path to find unique and hidden shops, and stylish cafes to grab a bite to eat at any time of day. Among them is a dessert shop that only sells organic gelato, a cafe that serves Australian drip coffee, and many more delicious places that are worth a visit. To start the walk from Meiji-jingumae <Harajuku> Station, go down the Omotesando Street and turn left just before you get to the police station, where you can find Cat Street.
